

H Appendix H: Prompting Effect Survey

(Sophia) 1. Do you know if David had any financial or emotional disputes with anyone?---I know that David was quite persistent in getting what he wanted. He was wealthy, but he could be controlling, especially when it came to people he was interested in. As for disputes, I can't say for sure, but it wouldn't surprise me if he had conflicts with others.

2. Do you know if David was carrying any important items?---I don't know. When I met him that night, I didn't notice anything unusual.

Good

Bad

3. Did you see any suspicious actions or individuals?---At 8:20 PM, while I was on the deck, I saw something fall into the sea from the storage room window. I don't know what it was, but it struck me as odd.

Good

Bad

4. What was your reaction when you found out about David's death?---I was shocked. I never expected things to escalate to that point. I was terrified and didn't know how to react.

Good

Bad

5. Were you surprised by David's death?---Yes, very. I knew he would have been upset after our argument, but I never thought he would end up dead.

Good

Bad

6. Were you afraid of David? Did you ever think about getting rid of him?---He made me uncomfortable at times, but I never wanted to harm him. I only wanted to distance myself from him and deal with my debts on my own terms.

Good

Bad

7. Are you aware of any illegal activities David was involved in on the ship?---No, I don't know anything about that.

Good

Bad

8. You sent David a message at 7:50 PM asking him to meet in the storage room. Did you see him afterward?---Yes, I met him in the storage room.

Good

Bad

9. How long did you stay in the storage room? What exactly happened?---Not long... maybe a few minutes. We argued about my debt. I told him I wanted to pay him back and move on, but he refused. Things got heated, and... I panicked and left.

Good

Bad

10. Where did you go after leaving at 8:05 PM? Can anyone confirm your whereabouts?---I went to the deck to calm myself down. I stayed there the entire time. Other crew members may have seen me there.

Good

Bad

11. Why did you go to the deck? How were you feeling at the time?---I needed fresh air. I was overwhelmed by the argument and needed to clear my head.

Good

Bad

12. You said you wanted to slowly repay your debt—how did David respond?---He wasn't happy about it. He insisted that I either stay with him as he wanted or deal with the consequences.

Good

Bad

13. Have you ever told anyone about your relationship with David?---No, it wasn't something I liked talking about.

Good

Bad

14. Have you ever had a physical altercation with David?---We occasionally had emotional outbursts, but... nothing extreme.

Good

Bad

15. There was a blood-stained hairpin on your dressing table. Can you explain this?---...Yes. I did stab David with it that night. But listen, it wasn't a fatal wound! I only acted out of desperation. He was still breathing when I left—I was sure he would wake up soon and get help.

Good

Bad

16. Why didn't you call the police after seeing David collapse?---I was in shock. I knew the wound wasn't fatal, and I truly believed he would get up and seek help himself. I regretted what I did, but I didn't think he was in serious danger.

Good

Bad

17. Are you certain that David was completely unresponsive at that time?---No, he was still alive. He had a heartbeat, and I could hear his breathing. I panicked and ran, but I never thought he wouldn't wake up.

Good

1. (Micheal) How did you find last night's fireworks?---Uh... they were spectacular, just like the previous shows. I wanted to watch longer, but... my stomach wasn't feeling well, so I had to leave early.

Good

Bad

2. What is your relationship with David?---We were high school classmates and reconnected when I started working on this ship. He was friendly at first, and since we worked together, we talked occasionally.

Good

Bad

3. After the fireworks show today, who did you meet, what were they doing, and what were you doing?---After the fireworks show, I wasn't feeling well, so I left early. I went back to my room to rest. I didn't meet anyone on my way back.

Good

Bad

4. Before the fireworks show today, who did you meet, what were they doing, and what were you doing?---Before the fireworks, I was in my room. Emily stopped by, and we chatted for a bit. I learned that she had been delivering chocolates for David, which surprised me.

Good

Bad

5. When was the last time you saw David?---Uh... I think it was around 6 PM. He came to my room with a bottle of wine. We talked briefly, and then he left.

Good

Bad

6. Do you know where David usually goes before the voyage ends?---I'm not sure... he never told me much about his routine.

Good

Bad

7. Who do you think could be the murderer?---I don't know... but if someone really wanted him dead, it must be someone involved in his business. I mean, he had a lot of secrets.

Good

Bad

8. Now that David is dead, what do you plan to do next?---I... I just want to keep my job and stay out of trouble. This whole thing is terrifying.

Good

Bad

9. Are you satisfied with your position on the ship?---Uh... I mean, it's fine. It pays well enough, and I don't have many complaints.

Good

Bad

10. Do you know if anyone on the ship has a gun?---A gun? No, I've never seen anyone with one. That's illegal on a cruise ship, right?

Good

Bad

11. Why was the wine in your room poisoned? When and where did you get it? Did you know about this?---Poisoned?! I—I don't know anything about that! David brought that wine to my room. I didn't drink it because I noticed something strange about the cork. I swear, I had nothing to do with poisoning it!

Good

Bad

12. Why do you think he wanted to kill you? Did you offend him recently?---I... I don't know. Maybe he thought I was a threat? But I never did anything to harm him!

Good

Bad

13. Do you remember Captain John? How did he die?---Yes, of course. It was a tragic accident... or so I heard. I wasn't directly involved, but there were rumors that he found out about something illegal.

Good

Bad

14. Why were there threatening messages from you on David's phone? Why did you threaten him?---I—I was just frustrated! I thought he was cutting me out of something, and I wanted answers. I didn't mean anything serious by it!

Good

Bad

15. There were drugs inside the fireworks boxes, which happen to be under your management.---What?! That's impossible! I only handled the shipments as instructed. I had no idea there were drugs in them!

Good

Bad

16. Were you helping him smuggle drugs? Do you know who else was involved?---No! I mean—I don't know anything for sure! David had a lot of contacts, but I wasn't part of any smuggling operation!

Good

Bad

17. I found a bottle of concentrated sulfuric acid in Emily's possession.---Sulfuric acid? That's... dangerous. Why would she have that? I don't know anything about it.

Good

Bad

18. You seem to have a good relationship with Emily. Do you know if she had any conflicts with David?---We talked occasionally, but I didn't know she had problems with David. If she did, she never told me about them.

Good

Bad

19. What's the deal with this bullet casing?---Bullet casing? I—I have no idea where that came from! Why would there be something like that in my room?!

Good

Bad

1. (Emily) How did you find last night's fireworks?---They were beautiful, as always! The guests seemed to enjoy them a lot. I was stationed at the entrance, so I couldn't watch them closely, but I could hear the excitement.

Good

Bad

2. What is your relationship with David?---He was my superior, and I followed his orders as part of my job. He could be... demanding at times, but I always did my best to stay professional.

Good

Bad

3. After the fireworks show today, who did you meet, what were they doing, and what were you doing?---After the fireworks ended, I was still at my post at the deck entrance, ensuring everything was in order. I didn't have time to chat much, but I did notice guests leaving happily.

Good

Bad

4. Before the fireworks show today, who did you meet, what were they doing, and what were you doing?---I saw Sophia arrive on deck around 8:05 PM—she looked nervous and was leaning against the railing. Around 8:10 PM, Michael mentioned he had a stomachache and left for his room. As for me, I was at my assigned station, checking guests for safety.

Good

Bad

5. When was the last time you saw David?---It was around 7:20 PM. I was in the storage room when he saw me and yelled at me, ordering me to leave. I left immediately.

Good

Bad

6. Do you know where David usually goes before the voyage ends?---Not really. He never shared that kind of information with me.

Good

Bad

7. Who do you think could be the murderer?---I have no idea. David had a strong personality, and I imagine he had conflicts with other people too, but I never thought something like this would happen.

Good

Bad

8. Now that David is dead, what do you plan to do next?---I just want to keep doing my job. This is shocking, but I need to focus on my work and not get involved in things beyond my control.

Good

Bad

9. Are you satisfied with your position on the ship?---I enjoy working here. It's not always easy, but I do my best to get along with everyone and fulfill my duties.

Good

Bad

10. Do you know if anyone on the ship has a gun?---No, I've never seen anyone with a gun. I wouldn't even know where to get one.

Good

Bad

11. Why was the wine in your room poisoned? When and where did you get it? Did you know about this?---What? Poisoned wine? That's insane! I don't know anything about that. I didn't poison anything, and I don't even remember having any special wine in my room.

Good

Bad

12. Why do you think he wanted to kill you? Did you offend him recently?---Wait—kill me? I don't know what you're talking about. Sure, he got mad sometimes, but I never thought he wanted to kill me. I always followed his orders.

Good

Bad

13. Do you remember Captain John? How did he die?---I've heard stories, but I wasn't on the ship when that happened. People gossip about it, but I don't know any details.

Good

Bad

14. Why were there threatening messages from you on David's phone? Why did you threaten him?---That doesn't make sense! I never threatened him. Maybe I complained once or twice when he was being unreasonable, but I would never actually threaten him. If there are messages like that, I have no idea how they got there.

Good

Bad

15. There were drugs inside the fireworks boxes, which happen to be under your management.---Drugs? In the fireworks boxes? That's impossible! I check the storage regularly, and I never saw anything suspicious. Someone must have put them there without me knowing.

Good

Bad

16. Were you helping him smuggle drugs? Do you know who else was involved?---What?! No, I wasn't helping anyone smuggle anything! I don't know anything about drugs or who could be involved. If David was doing something illegal, I had no part in it.

Good

Bad

17. I found a bottle of concentrated sulfuric acid in Emily's possession.---Sulfuric acid? I—uh—I work around cleaning supplies sometimes, but I didn't do anything with it. Lots of chemicals are kept on the ship for maintenance purposes.

Good

Bad

18. You seem to have a good relationship with Emily. Do you know if she had any conflicts with David?---(If answering as another crew member:) Well, Emily is friendly, but she and David didn't exactly get along. He was always giving her extra work. She complained about it sometimes, but nothing serious.

Good

Bad

19. What's the deal with this bullet casing?---Bullet casing? I have no idea. I've never even touched a gun before! Where did you find it?
